THE BIG TEEPEE

Home of our pow wows,
peace gathering, and Victory dances.

THE ARICKARA TRAIL

Change your reckless way of living
Cross over the bridge

Memories linger in the Big Teepee of Pow wows held long ago. The ghosts of the past follow the A-rickara Trail; and the wigwam bears the scars of warriors of many moons ago.

THE WIGWAM

Where our warriors
learn to carve on wood.

THE 1954-1955 ARICKARA

CHIEF ARICKARA is an Indian guide who will lead you through this 1954-55 yearbook. He will show you the fun and friendship we've all enjoyed throughout the year. He will introduce you to the class of '55 and to the men and women who made it possible for them to advance into life with an adult education, the faculty.

The Chief and the Arickara Staff hope that this memory book will help you recall the educational and fun-filled days you spent in Yankton High School.

SO TAKE IT AWAY, CHIEF!

FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION

SUPERINTENDENT
LESTER H. BAUMANN

Celebrating his fifth year as superintendent of Yankton Public Schools, Mr. Baumann once more gains another successful term to his long list of achievements. In these years, Mr. Baumann has added two new schools and laid the plans for a future high school.

PRINCIPAL
D.R. SNOWDEN

Mr. Snowden through the year 1954-55 has provided the guiding light for YHS. The senior class and the underclassmen alike are grateful for the helping hand he extended in the time of need.

SCHOOL BOARD
PRESIDENT
CLAIR W. GILES

VICE-PRESIDENT
DR. R.F. HUBNER

MRS. JUNE McVAY

DR. J.M. HOHN

WALLY FLINT

BUSINESS MANAGER
ERNIE MYERS

The working mastermind behind all schools is the schoolboard. The Board of Education for Yankton Public Schools has done a fine job of keeping the schools functioning.

In 1951, a small group of students walked through the doors of Yankton High School and were presented with the title of Freshmen. Scared and bewildered, they mingled in and out of the doors and classrooms wondering what each one would bring in the way of excitement. As 1951 and 1952 passed by, they soon became active members of Yankton High School.

The years 1953 and 1954 passed rapidly for this busy group of students. Soon this group donned caps and gowns to push through the gates of YHS as the graduating class of 1955.

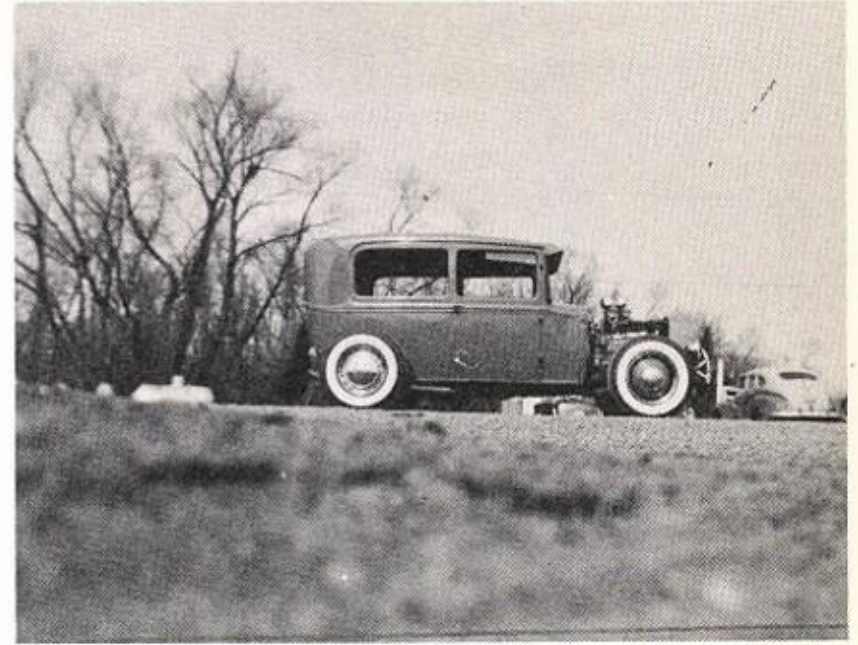

Their senior year was the most exciting as it was stacked high with honors and remembrances of fun-filled activities and concluded with the thrilling night of graduation.

The class of 1955 left Yankton High School with a reputation to be proud, for: To The Valiant Heart Naught is Impossible.

Senior Class Activities

"Yes, it's quite the class!"

"She's faster 'n any car?"

"Taking it easy, George?"

Follow the leader.

"Oh--Look at Carol!"

"I gave it to Cleo for a souvenir."

"--you're going to get yours."

1954 HOMECOMING

Beautiful weather, happy royalty, outstanding floats, and a victorious football team, made the 1954 Arickara one long to be remembered.

The Coronation revealed George Donohoe and Kay Smith as Chief and Princess with Toby Munkvold, Myrna Johnson, Buddy Armstrong and Maxine Larson as attendants. Following the coronation was the burning of the Y and the snake dance through the streets of Yankton.

The most exciting feature of the day was the thrilling contest when the Bucks defeated the Aberdeen Eagles 21-7. During the half-time the Drill Team and Band kept the crowd entertained.

A happy climax to a highly successful homecoming was the annual Arickara dance sponsored by the Junior class.

Kay and Reign Over

The Chief and Princess were revealed on coronation eve in the High School Auditorium. Margaret Neufeld, last year's Princess, crowned the 1954 royalty.

After the coronation, Princess Smith lit the bonfire in the shape of a Y at Garfield Park.

George

1954 Arickara

Reigning over the 1954 homecoming were Chief George Donohoe and Princess Kay Smith and their attendants: Toby Munkvold, Myrna Johnson, Buddy Armstrong, and Maxine Larson.

The Chief and Princess led the Arickara Day parade through the streets of Yankton.

Yankton High School

Leading the parade on Arickara Day, the Drill Team (A) and the Cheerleaders (B) displayed high school pep and energy. Following the Drill Team came the floats. The judges found Mr. Schiller's homeroom, No.35, the best float in the parade. (D) The Buck's Victory Crown (C) was entered by Mrs. Anderson's homeroom, No.36.

Homecoming Parade

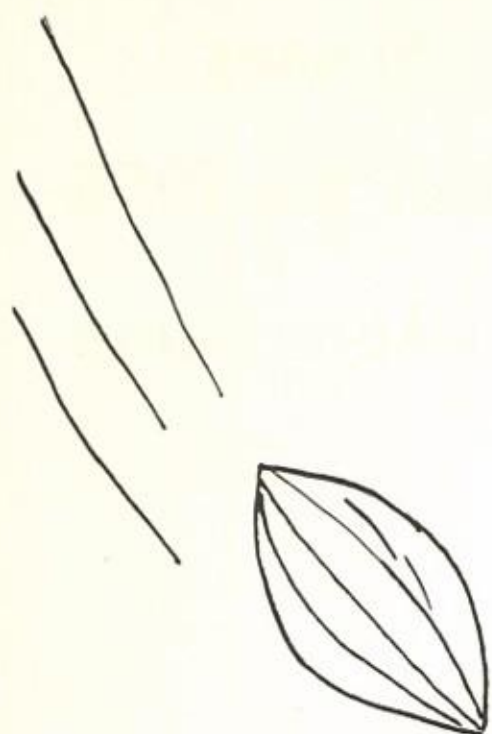

Mr. Kempf's homeroom, No. 45, was judged the most handsome in the parade (A). The best Indian theme float was won by Mrs. Shoemaker's homeroom (B). Miss Bang's homeroom, No. 6, (C) and Mr. Bedner's homeroom, No. 38, (D) were also entries in the parade.

Well, those Bucks have done it again! Going undefeated for the second year in a row, they set a new record in Y.H.S.--nineteen games without a tie or a loss. It was a great season, beginning September 10 against South Sioux City in a 13-0 affair and ending at Norfolk with a score of 12-0. No one scored over one touchdown against the Champs and four opponents were held scoreless. The Bucks bowled over opponents with scores such as: Madison, 6-0; Huron, 32-6; Vermillion, 12-0; Mitchell, 25-6; Watertown, 20-7. Cast as the underdog in their homecoming the giant grid machine, under the skilled eyes of good coaches, buckled down with grim determination and proceeded to defend their E.S.D. crown against the number one contender, Aberdeen. Again they came out on top. With a homecoming game under their belts they rolled on over Vermillion, Brookings, Mitchell, Watertown, and Norfolk.

The start of the 1954-55 Buck basketball season found Mr. Overskei with four returning lettermen and it looked like we might go a long way in basketball. But the Bucks were plagued by injuries as Dick Beers and Bill Van Epps had to have operations, George Donohoe was out two weeks due to illness, and John Boyles still suffered from a broken arm received in football. Yankton won the first game of the sectional, beating Scotland 67-40. But tragedy struck once more and Parkston beat Yankton in the final game 85-65. The next season looks a little brighter with five returning lettermen.

The Overskei cindermen opened the 1955 track season at the University of South Dakota invitational meet entering such events as the relays, hurdles, dashes, and shot put. The next week saw them at the Norfolk Track Meet where they did very well. The next few Saturdays were busy for the Bucks as they had an invitational meet at home; attended the Corn Palace Relays; picked up a few points in the Dakota Relays and won the Region VII crown. In the Conference Meet the Buck thinclads racked up 25 points for 3rd place. During the season John Boyles broke the Y.H.S. 100 yard dash record and tied the Dakota Relays record in the same race. His record time was 10 flat. Also the mile-relay team came within a few tenths of a second of the Y.H.S. record but could not muster enough to break it.

Advisors and Accompanists

Accompanists for the Chorus and Glee Club were Jean Stuelpnagel and Mary Desmond. Jean and Mary are both superior pianists and did a great deal to aid the music of Yankton High School. Faculty advisors for the year were Mr. Palmer and Miss Crain.

Trio

During the year, Yankton High School was entertained many times by the trio. Pictured here are the Balladettes which include Barbara Schmidt, Roberta Koenig, Marlys Munkvold, and Miss Crain, accompanist.

Vermillion and Yankton Concert

Mr. Robert McCowman is rehearsing with the combined Yankton and Vermillion chorus groups for a colorful evening performance. A bright note was added by the girls who wore formals and the boys in dark suits.

"One, two, three" and away we go. This is the familiar chant of Yankton High's Drill Team. The precision marching and formations of the girls added interest and attraction to parades and half-time game performances throughout the year. Many hours of practices gave way to outstanding exhibitions as the girls paraded through their drills with ease and skill.

"It's a Women's World" was the theme for the annual Military Ball this year.

"We're all smiles!"

Booster Club

Once a year Miss Burgi's Booster Club takes time out from work to enjoy a pheasant feed.

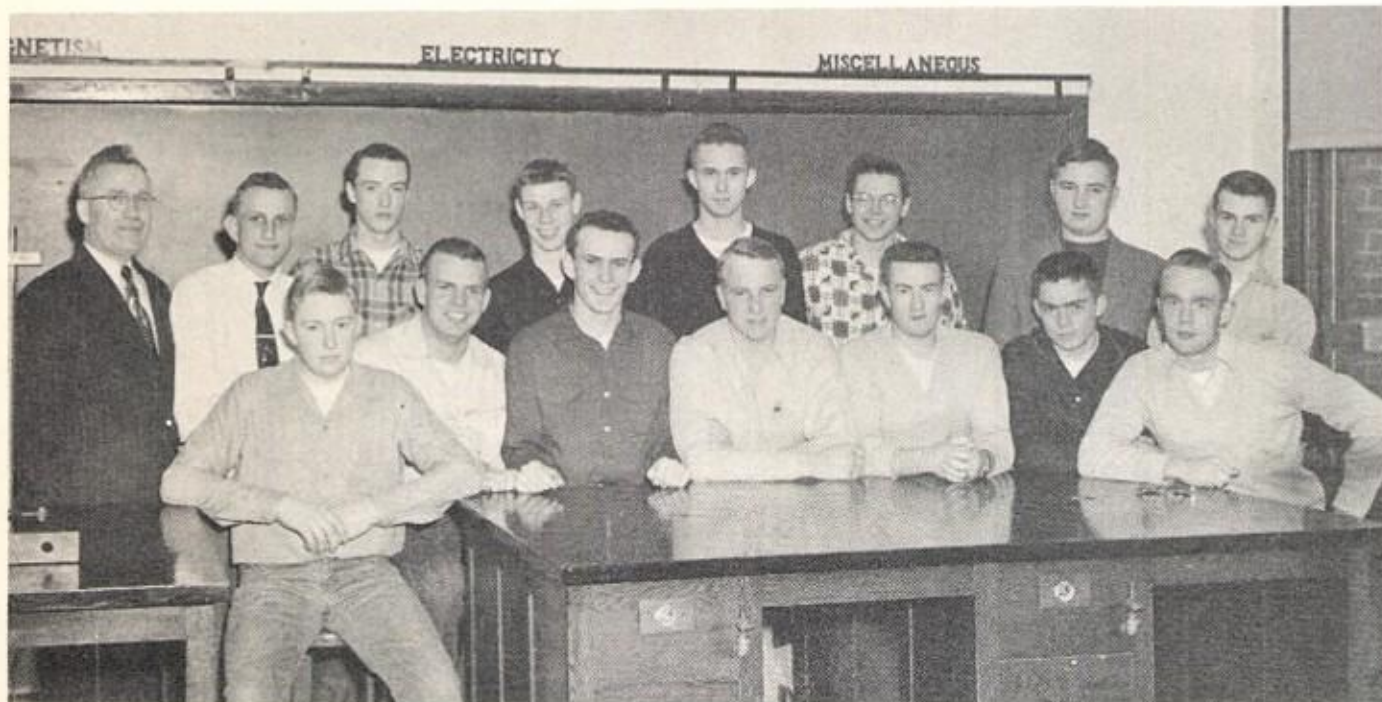

Sell, sell, sell

One of the hardest working organizations in Yankton High School is the Booster Club. This high pressure selling group keeps the basketball fans well supplied with snacks and the school well supplied with ready cash. Every year, the club adds new books to the stacks in the library and lends a helping hand by awarding a scholarship to a deserving student of Yankton High School.

Physics Club

Happy looking bunch, aren't they?

Room 40 is the site for the continual scientific experiments by the Physics Club. The club, originated by Mr. Halsted and formed to stimulate interest in individual projects and experiments, keeps the test tubes bubbling and the bunsen burner flaming. Lawrence Berberick was elected president, Gene Kaiser, vice president, and Dick Beers, secretary.

Seated, left to right: Don Schershligt, Emil Cwach, George Donohoe, Larry Berberich, Buddy Armstrong, Joe Huber, Don Lowe.

Standing: Mr. Halsted, Roland Kralicek, Pat Keating, Ed Volin, Jerry Case, Don Howell, Jim Myers, Jimmy Winfree.

Library Club

Books, books, and more books

Keeping the Yankton High School library in running order throughout the year was the Library Club under the supervision of Miss Burgess. Shown here are Sharon Thomson, Dorothy Remington, Helen Burgess, Erla Holbrook, Ethel Carter, and Jean Butler.

Y Club Aren't we handsome!

Letter winners in YHS athletics each year form a Y Club under the supervision of Coach Overskei. The club sponsors such events as a hayride, a picnic, and an exhibition basketball game. The club also sold refreshments at sport events to raise money with which they purchased and donated to the school a camera lens for the moving picture projector and a new style tackling dummy.

Girls' Athletic Association Dig those crazy athletes

Organized in Yankton High School to keep its girls in top physical shape and to offer athletic appreciation for girls, the GAA presents many opportunities for both fun and culture. The girls, besides studying many types of sports, also sponsored parties and other activities throughout 1954-55. Erla Holbrook was elected president for the year. Miss Wheeler is faculty advisor.

Row 3: Marilyn Johnson, Arliss Lane, Erla Holbrook, Mary Ellen Poulsen, Sandra Hubner, Darlene Johnson, Sharon Eggers, Iris Marek, Kay Smith, Miss Wheeler, Merry Whipple, Grace Kaser, Carol Burgi, Karen Logsdon, Shirley Seiner, Dorothy Remington.

We are the strength of tomorrow

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Better housewives and chefs are these gals main aim. Future Homemakers of America have many business meetings and social functions throughout the year. Better foods and frocks are their accomplishments.

Standing: Verna Poulsen, Mary Ann Risling, Diane Feldman, Sharon Eggers, Sharon Schnell, Darlene Pokorney, Jane Grajkowski, Betty O'Malley, President Janet Freidel, Advisor Miss Bang, Barbara Mitchell, Delores Kotalic, Alma Schlaefli, Betty Soukup, Secretary Barbara Richardson, Erla Holbrook, Wanda McKee, Donna Harberer.

Seated: Janice Haberer, Maxine Hlavac, Donna Sargent, Maxine Kozak, Beverly Stuen, Treasurer Carol Mitchell, Judy Huber, Arlene Hlavac.

THE FUTURE NURSES CLUB

Mrs. Stuedeman and Miss Bacon have built up a club which gives YHS and Mount Marty girls an opportunity to view nursing careers at both business and social meetings.

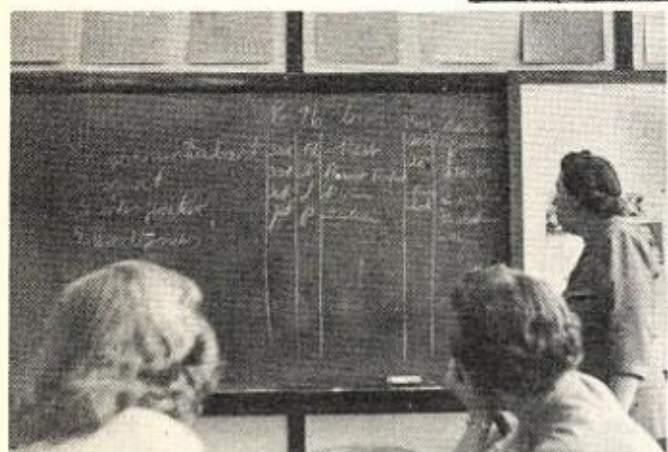

Standing: Erla Holbrook, Arlene Edelman, Aurel Stuelpnagel, Doris Rupiper, Ruth Neilson, Arliss Lane, Darlene Johnson, Advisor Miss Bacon.
Sitting: Joan Madison, Advisor Lois Stuedeman, Carol Lokken, President Pat Smith, Sally Nusinson, Sandra Hanson.

LATIN CLUB

"Big group, aren't we"

If anyone asked you what the largest club in YHS is you would undoubtedly answer, "The Latin Club." Each year this club has a large dinner and the new members are given the title of "slave" in which they serve the other members. This is a form of initiation which introduces fun and frolic.

FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB

The Jenny Stewart Future Teachers Club is enlarging by leaps and bounds. This club gives students an opportunity to view teaching more closely and from the teacher's angle. This year these students were allowed to attend classes in Yankton schools and aid the teacher in conducting the class.

YANKTON HIGH STUDENT COUNCIL

Standing: Larry Obr, Toby Munkvold, Eldon Eisenach, Jerry Donohoe, Mr. Snowden, advisor, Stan Ray.

Seated: Kay Benes, Buddy Armstrong, Don Lowe, Pam Christopherson, Gary Stevens, Dave Bride, John Boyles, Dave Nyberg, Bob Kuckta, Tom Brewer, Dale Lillie.

In Yankton High, like all other schools, the student council stands as the governing body behind all activities. It is the council's job to see that all school functions are of the highest type of entertainment. They must plan and schedule assemblies, activities, and work over all student plans with the faculty.

The council is the contact between the students and administration which keeps 16 members busy at all times.

Principal Snowden points out the schedule to Vice President Buddy Armstrong, President Don Lowe and Secretary Pam Christopherson.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

Membership in a national honor society is the chief objective of the ambitious and forward looking high school student. YHS has such an organization in its speech department. The National Forensic League is a group of hard working students interested in increasing their speaking ability.

NOVICE DEBATERS

Yankton High again this year like in the past can brag of an excellent debate squad and declam team. Experienced debaters as well as the Novice earned many awards. The Novice team kept up a high 70% win record throughout the year. The experienced team, maintaining a 85-90% win, took top honors in the "Big 5" tournament and debated their way through the divisional tourney into the state meet.

ADVANCED SQUAD

"Hard at work, Debaters?"

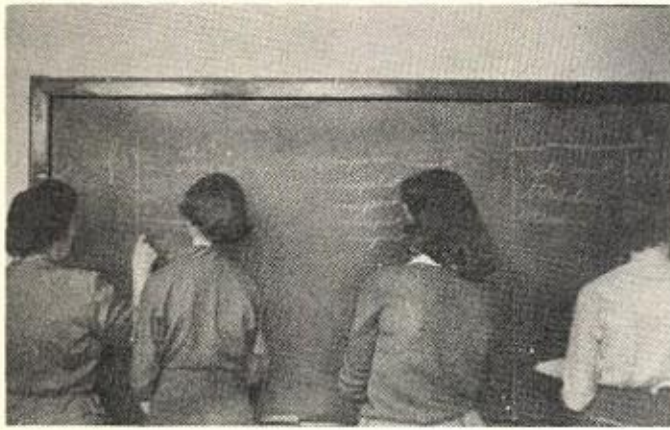

The Big Eight, Ronnie Aulgur, Ray Skoglund, Advisor Mr. Schenk, Gordon Scott, Eldon Eisenach, admire their trophy. These boys won by hard work.

The "Big 8" Debaters

ACTIVITIES

ARICKARA STAFF

After many days of extra work and the burning of the midnight oil, a victory cry could be heard throughout the school as Editor Kay Smith bellowed, "FINISHED," and sent the last page off to the printer. Yankton High has always been represented by an outstanding yearbook and the 1955 staff hopes that this year's book will live up to the high standards of the books of the past. Mrs. Anderson was the 1955 faculty advisor.

This is sure fun!

Ohhhh--what you said!

The type should fit.

Sandy--I'll bet we can use this.

Is that you?

The Woksape Staff

"Gotta meet the deadline," was the continuous command from the editors of Yankton High's source of school news and comments, the Woksape. The nine issues of the paper strove to boost school spirit and to create a good understanding between students and teachers. Between selling advertisements, writing and copy reading, the Woksape was able to enter two contests held for high school papers taking three first place awards. Mr. McCormack was the Woksape advisor.

MARDI GRAS

The 1955 Mardi Gras, New Orleans style, presented "Famous People" as the theme. Students attended in costumes representing famous comic characters and well-known historical persons. King John Boyles and Queen Sandra Hanson reigned over the celebration. Buddy Armstrong, Tom Brewer, Pam Christopherson, and Meredith Auld were the attendants. The Mardi Gras is presented by the Junior Class.

What an interesting specimen.

Sleepy time gals.

Diane has a water gun and everybody else has freckles.

BUSINESS EDUCATION DAY

On Business-Education Day the teachers of YHS visited the local business establishments and were introduced to many modern business practices. Mr. Baumann, Superintendent of public schools, is being introduced to business practices of the Cihak Insurance.

"My, my so many legal terms-huh-Mr. Baumann?"

Two of our high school teachers, Mr. Schiller and Mr. McCormack, are interested in the Press and Dakotan's new picture machine.

"Jotting all this down, Mr. McCormack?"

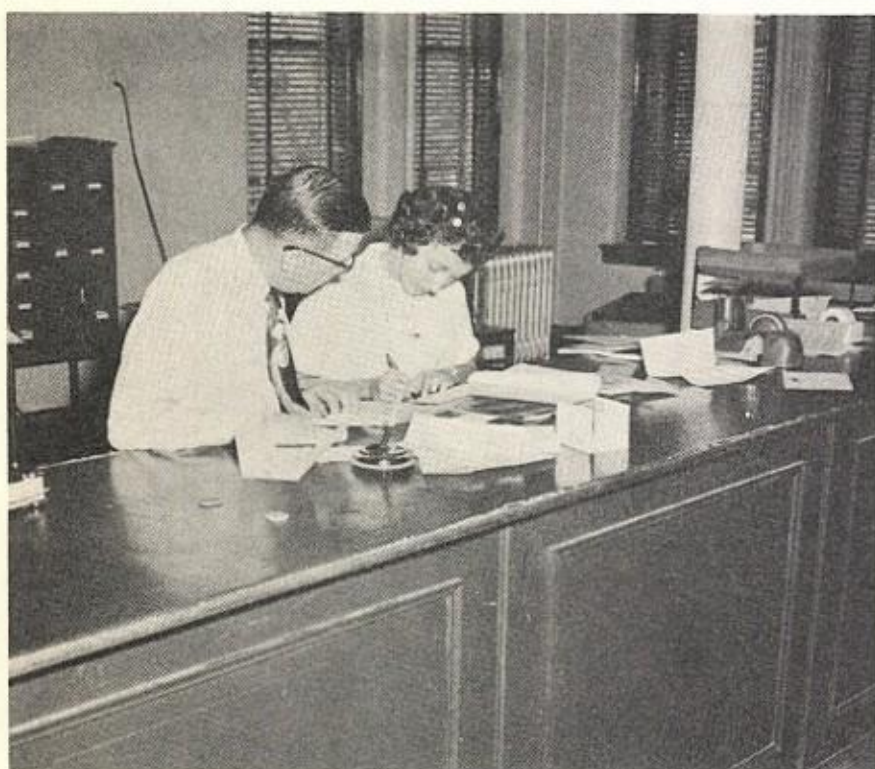

The teachers attend a buffet luncheon to finish the day.

"Are you pretty hungry, Mr. Bauer?"

STUDENT GOVERNMENT DAY

The Students of YHS took the oath of office on American Legion Government Day after several weeks of mock elections and campaigning. Mr. Steinbach was faculty chairman of the program. A banquet at the Legion Hall climaxed the annual program which got its start in Yankton 8 years ago.

Maxine Larson as Register of Deeds finds it a big job but interesting work. Vick Johnson as state patrolman and Jim Smith, Deputy Sheriff, read clippings while Don Lowe, Sheriff, and Ed Volin, States Attorney, look over a "wanted" file at the police station. The County Commissioners, Ken Hicks, Janice Stark, Don Scherschligt, Carol Burgi, Erla Holbrook, find Nathan Steinbach fun to work with.

High school students Jim Smith, Ed Volin, Myrna Johnson, and Don Lowe sit in a mock Court hearing. Carol Lokken, as County Treasurer, finds this job involves a lot of alertness and accuracy. Myrna Johnson, Clerk of Courts, looks over the book containing court activities. Larry Obr, Fire Chief, finds the fire engine more complicated than he thought. Wouldn't that be fun to have on a date, Larry!? Bob Stewart, Police Chief, finds the activities of Sampson very interesting and hard. You wouldn't want that job, Bob--it's work!

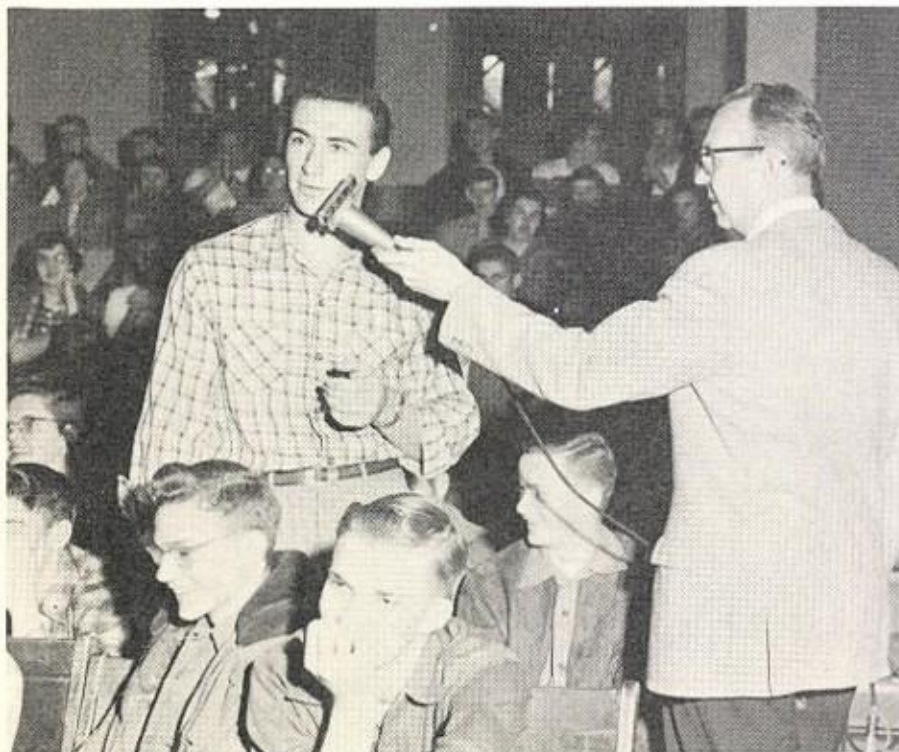

WNAX FORUM

The WNAX forum is held each year in Yankton High School. The forum is to give students a chance to voice their opinions on a certain topic. The panel members discuss the advantages and disadvantages of the topic and then answer questions from the floor. This program is recorded and then played over the air.

Bud Dughman answers a question while Eldon Eisenach and Jack Coates stand by. Mr. Schmidt directed the program and helped in clarifying questions and answers.

Don't chew your nails. It isn't that bad, Harold. 86

You have a good point there, Jim.

Congratulations, Homeroom 35.

Mr. Schiller, Junior Class advisor, proudly looks over his homeroom's winning Christmas basket. Each year a basket has been placed in the Study Hall which students fill with canned goods for needy families of Yankton. This year each homeroom competed by trying to have the most unusual, attractive, and filled basket.

THIS IS PROOF!

This is proof that a class can be attentive. Just look at the attention Marlene Weber is getting as she explains the action in a picture.

1955 Boys Staters

Yankton High will send six boys to the annual Boys State at Aberdeen. The boys will be sent by local civic groups. The object of Boys State is to teach students the proper way a democratic government should be run. The boys will hold elections for a mock government in which all representatives will take part. Jack Coates, Eldon Eisenach, Bill Van Epps, Hal Brost, and John Boyles are 1955 Boys Staters.

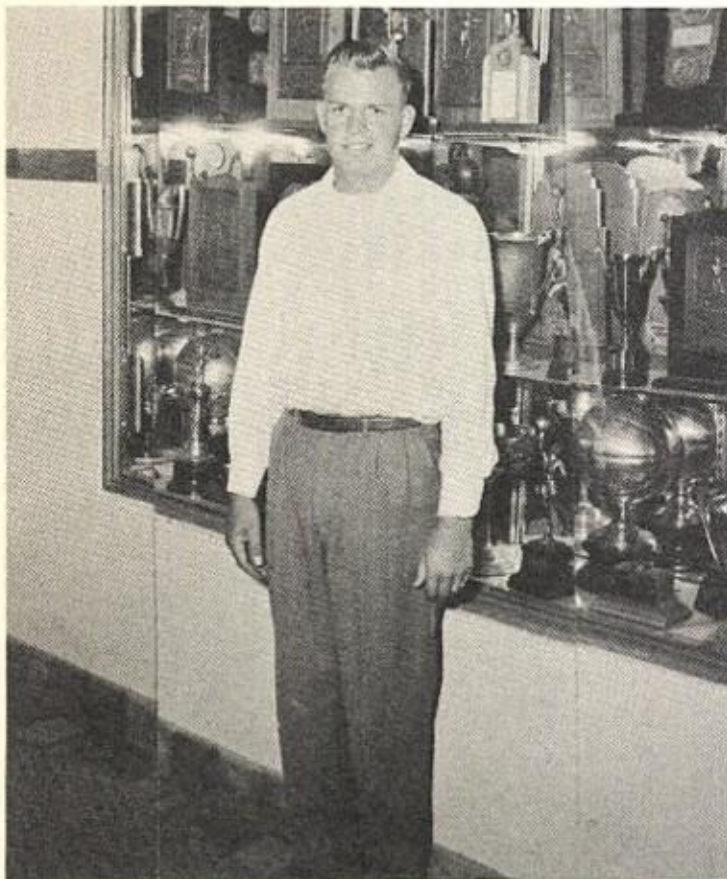

YHS Girls Staters

Mitchell will be the site for the annual Girls State this year. Yankton will be represented by Diane Tincher and Kay Myers. Four YHS Juniors were elected of which two were alternates. Girls State is basically the same as Boys State. The girls spend a week learning government fundamentals. The boy and girl staters will apply their knowledge when they help set up and promote Student Government Day. Pictured left to right are: Diane Tincher; Jean Stuelpnagel, alternate; Kay Myers; Janet Rulon, alternate.

YHS Majorettes

Emil Cwach is one of the few boys to be accepted into the Air Force Academy. Emil was a 1954 Boys' Stater and was active and popular in various school activities. To gain this honor of acceptance Emil has put in a lot of hard and rewarding work.

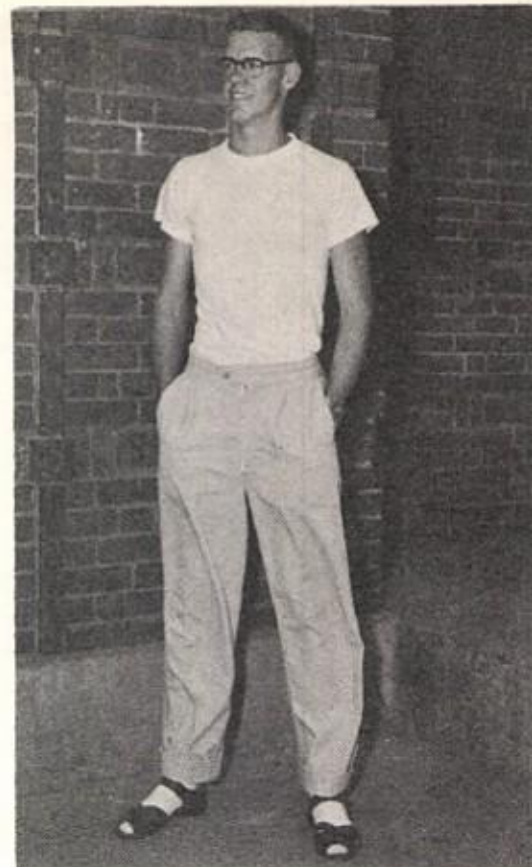

It is indeed an honor to be a Yankton High Majorette. To qualify the girls must be agile with the baton and ready for a lot of work. Our smiling majorettes left to right are: Virginia Tincher, Mary Ellen Poulsen, Janet Rulon, Judy Mogck, and Carol Tisher.

Carol Lokken was elected D.A.R. Representative for Yankton High. D.A.R. representatives are chosen for their scholastic rating and citizenship.

1954-55 also saw Maxine Larson and Gregg Nelson winning top honors in their division of the State Music Contest.

Vick Johnson of YHS was named outstanding citizen attending Boys State and has been invited to return as counselor this year.

The 1955-56 Arickara and Woksape will be headed by Diane Tincher and Sharon Gregg. Jack Coates and Wanda McKee were appointed to the post of Business Managers.

Yankton High School once more sent two graduates into Naval Reserves Officers Training Corp. Don Lowe and George Donohoe plan to attend Iowa State College under the N ROTC Training Plan.

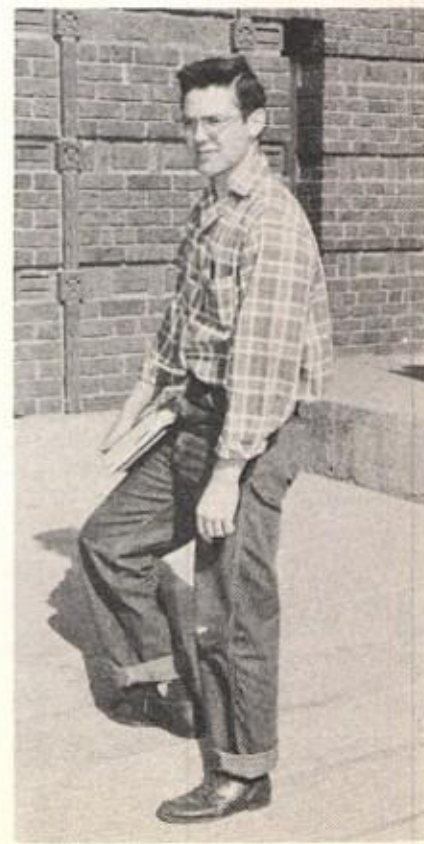

Dorothy Gurney and Lynn Shoemaker placed first and second in the local Rotary International Essay Contest. Dorothy's first place entry will go to other Rotary contests next year.

Rayburn "Sam" Skogland attended the 1954 United Nations Seminar in New York City. Sam stated that this was a very educational and interesting tour.

Dan Howell proved to be YHS's Mr. Einstein when he copped top honors in the state in the Batson Test over more than 6,000 other students.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR BANQUET

The Lutheran Church was the site for the annual banquet held for the Seniors by the Junior Class. The church dining table carried out the theme of "Garden in the Rain" with umbrella place cards and candle holders. Eldon Eisenach was toastmaster and introduced the speakers.

Speakers Table

At the speakers table are Rayburn Skoglund, Senior Class President; Eldon Eisenach, Master of Ceremonies; Carol Lokken, gave an address to the students; Mrs. Snowden; Principal D.R. Snowden; Trio, Carol Lehman, Diane Tincer, and Janet Rulon added to the entertainment.

Colorful tables and a gay festival atmosphere presided over the evening with a theme of "Garden in the Rain."

You have undoubtedly heard the saying, "The hand is quicker than the eye." In this case, "The head was quicker than the camera." According to the photographer you didn't have your head with you, Eldon, but we know it was working pretty fast.

JUNIOR SENIOR PROM

"Garden in the Rain" was the theme for the 1955 Jr.-Sr. Prom held in the High School Auditorium. The floor was decorated to resemble a picturesque garden, set off with a large fountain in the center of the floor. The ceiling was strung with small rain drops. Music was provided by Don Fejfar and his Orchestra. Variety was added by a welcoming line of faculty and students.

AWARDS DAY

Awards Day was a day many looked forward to at YHS. Many hard earned awards were handed to very happy students.

Superintendent Baumann hands awards to Gordon Scott and Dan Howell. Congratulations boys for a fine job.

Mr. Johnson gives Band Awards to seniors Clara Galer, Gregg Nelson, Dan Howell, Margaret Van Epps and Judy Schenk. YHS is losing some fine musicians.

Our Camera caught Don Lowe for his many, many awards in Journalism. Don was all-state Journalist along with many other awards. "Just a matter of words, huh Don?"

This is the last time we shall stand together as one unit. Bowed heads, tears, happy faces, and eyes toward the future.

Congratulations, fellow Seniors, for completing four successful years in YHS. Let's call them "four golden years"--thus we have gold end sheets to remind us of the happiness and golden memories left behind. But no--they are not forgotten--for we have them to reminisce in each YHS Yearbook. And here we are at the gate of the future.
